

Unidentified Names on 'our' War Memorials.

Saltash Heritage is trying to put identities to all those named on the War Memorials at St. Nicholas & St. Faith Saltash - and at St. Stephens by Saltash.

There are 185 Names on these Memorials - most of which can be identified: but the following 22 cannot be identified by us.

The St. Nicholas & St. Faith War Memorial has 'First' name initials only.

(The Saltash Branch of the Royal British Legion 'Roll of Honour' does have first names)

First World War.

C BUCKINGHAM (Charles?)

G E FREEMAN (Gilbert E?)

P G GILBERT (?)

S E GOULD (Sidney E?)

J C (or G) C. LAMERTON

(there's a James Henry Glenville LAMERTON (Master at Arms Royal Navy) buried in Saltash Baptist Chapel yard - could this be him?)

R A PRESTON (Robert A?)

Second World War

W BAILEY (Wilfred?)

M MITCHELL (Merrick?)

W PAISH (William?)

E A PIECE (Evelyn A?)

W C RICHARDS (William C?)

E ROGERS (Eric?)

G W SMITH (George W?)

G WESTON (George?)

The St. Stephens by Saltash War Memorial does have 'First' names

First World War

BOND Frederick

COOMBE William

CROOK Samuel

DYER Herbert H

GORMAN Frederick

HEATH Robert McI

Second World War

CUMMINGS Donald

(This is thought by Saltash Heritage to be 18 year old Donald Cummins. Boy Scout/Auxiliary Fireman - killed on duty at Saltash Station Goods-yard. If so his surname is incorrectly spelt on the St. Stephens by Saltash, but spelt correctly on the St. Nicholas and St. Faith, War Memorials)

WILLIAMS George
